

Laika, Longwave

Where is my baby
Where did he go
I'm gonna follow him
Through the rain and snow

He's gone and left me
Left me all alone
I ain't got nobody
And nowhere to call home

Where is my baby
How could he leave
Now I get so lonesome
I can't hardly breathe

All night I'm cryin'
He doesn't treat me right
Where's my sugar got to
Because I can't sleep at night

Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love

Where is my baby
Which way has he ran
I need my sugar
I need my man

Walkin' in the desert
Hot sand in my shoes
Where is my honey
To take away my blues

Where is my baby
Where did he go
I'm gonna follow him
Through the rain and snow

He's gone and left me
Left me all alone
Now I ain't got nobody
And nowhere to call home

Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
Who's that at the door who's
It isn't love isn't love isn't love
