Lake Of Tears, Eyes Of The Sky

You opened my heart when you opened your eyes And I beheld the dawn of the hidden sky I felt a breeze, so gentle and mild And when I glanced the sunrise, then I knew I could fly

Oh, I see the sky, in your eyes

Please grab my hand and take me away Take me into your eyes to meet a beautiful day Take me into the sky, where the birds always sing And put me on a cloud, where dreams begin

And when sunset comes let me watch the stars Don't close your eyes cause it would break my heart Oh, please my love, please let me see Don't close your eyes, cause you know if would kill me

Oh,I see the sky, in your eyes Oh,a beautiful sky, down deep in your eyes
