Lake Of Tears, Raistlin And The Rose

Shadows Shadows and fever No one hears him cry so he turns to evil Only now, only now does he know

Pains
Always those pains
Once he turns that way he will do it again
Only now, only now does he know
Silver doom, unseen moon will show

As they dance under the moon they bring doom He calls her friend and says he'll change She calls him friend and he deceives again

Flowers A scent of flowers Always on his mind so he deceives her Only now, only now does she know

Love Love makes her blind Soon she follows him through the doors of time Only now, only now does she know Silver doom, unseen moon will show

As they dance under the moon
They bring doom
He calls her friend and says he'll change
She calls him friend and he deceives again

He calls her friend and says he'll change She calls him friend and he deceives again
