

Laleh, Roses

I will listen in stereo Im here
Im here
it was longtime ago
someone whispered in my ears and Sevy says she knows me I wont stay
I wont stay
and she might know me well but not today, I hope and this time Ill be brave along the clouds
but it takes time to say here you are

cause I cant keep the roses
no
I cant save the roses
the roses from before
cause I cant save the roses
no
the roses from before

how you grow
you grow on me each day the past I know
but the past dont know the smell of your neck
this is all you wanted so you better believe it these things dont happen every day so I cant keep the roses no I cant keep the roses

so I cant save the roses
no I cant keep the roses
the roses from

I dont have to save the roses from before oh, Im pretty sure Im going to try the roses
I dont have to save the rose no I cant keep the roses

no I cant keep the roses from before I dont have to save the roses from before.
