

Lamb, Stronger

I'm so afraid
Something is broken now
Too much been said
To wipe it clean somehow

Without
This love
Where will I be

Without
This love
Where will I be

Darkness abounds
Heaviness weighs my heart
'Round and round and round
We've gonna have to be apart

Without
(gonna have to be)
This love
(stronger than I've ever been)
Where will I be
(Don't know how to be without you)

Without
This love
Where will I be

Without
(gonna have to be)
This love
(stronger than I've ever been)
Where will I be
(Don't know how to be without you)
