

Lana Del Rey, Meet Me In The Pale Moonlight

Understand this

I'm not looking for true love tonight

If you wanna be my little baby you can

Meet me in the pale moonlight

I've been workin' everyday eighth to nine and

Servin' coke and fries at the movie blue drive-in

If you want me you know where to find me

I can be your one time baby

I can be your little dairy queen

I don't wanna care tonight

I don't wanna fight

You don't have to give me anything

Just put your sweet kiss kiss on my lips now baby

Understand this

I've been liking you since I was small

I don't get you runnin' scared when

There's no pressure there at all

I've been workin' eighth to nine everyday

Think about you almost all the time, all the time and

If I want to see you I drive by

I can be your one time baby

I can be your little dairy queen

I don't wanna care tonight

I don't wanna fight

You don't have to give me anything

Just put your sweet kiss kiss on my lips now baby

I'm the sweetest girl in town

So why are you so mean?

When you gonna ditch that stupid (bitch) you got

It's me you should be seein'

Hello [oh oh] you are looking so fine, so fine

Fantasy about you's like a gold mine, gold mine

Asking everybody, is he mine, is he mine

Not quite yet, but I'm gonna get, get 'im

Not quite yet, but I'm gonna get, get 'im

I can be your one time baby

I can be your little dairy queen

I don't wanna care tonight

I don't wanna fight

You don't have to give me anything

Just put your sweet kiss kiss on my lips now baby
