

Lanemeyer, Energy

can i say... i hope that i can see just what's in store tomorrow...
take my dreams and write them down once more (i can't be myself)
and to take all of those times you brought me down do you believe in somethign more?
can you find what's on the path you have in store (and face it down)
all the wreckage
crawls into your heart
cause ther's too much, distance take me to the start walk me through this dream again...
