

Lange feat. Sarah Howells, Out of the sky

Possible, that it could all be wonderful
Sweet the sound, as all the stars come crashing down
But I will wait for you,
Meet me in the blue
Afterglow, somethings you just dont need to know.
Came crashing in, battered your heart and bruised your shins
But I will wait for you, if you ask me to
The day is calling you,
Roll out and start anew
Wipe your weary eyes and tumble out of the sky
Out of the sky
