

Larger Than Life, Last Summer

do you know how much time it took to build the nerve to finally call you?
only to find out
that you had gone far away there was something i held onto you're gone so what can i do?
just to see you're face would make it all okay
you left me last summer (i wonder)
is there something i forgot to say?
now i am left here to suffer
do you feel the same way?
and now i find out
that i can't make it here on my own
so tell me when did i
lose control?
what have i done?
you can find i'll be gone for awhile
im gone...im gone...im gone every day i would watch you walk by and every second just seemed to fly by lost in the thought of you and i eternally crushed again i start to pray that someday you will finally come back do you realize
what you meant to me?
you left me last summer (i wonder)
is there something i forgot to say?
now i am left here to suffer
do you feel the same way?
cause now i find out
that i can't make it here on my own
so tell me when did i
lose control?
what have i done?
you can find i'll be gone for awhile
im gone...im gone...im gone (gone for way to long)
