

Larger Than Life, Some Kind Of Wonderful

Another day, waking up to find myself in the same way
Feeling homeless and helpless. This was heartless
Take some time and watch these problems drift away
And I'm here to say

Who are you to put me in this situation?
What can you do that's gonna help me now?
When you learn to care about no one
Where can I go tonight?
And that's why'

What you do is gonna echo in our lives
Don't take what you say and let it
Fix your broken life
Cuz if you find yourself on your own (all on your own)
Don't let him make you believe, just another tragedy

The thing to do, no more trust, no common sense will be the death of you
Departed, it's over before it started
I need a little help and that was plain to see
You'd never melt with me

Who are you to put me in this situation?
What can you do that's gonna help me now?
When you learn to care about no one
Where can I go tonight?
And that's why'

What you do is gonna echo in our lives
Don't take what you say and let it
Fix your broken life
Cuz if find yourself on your own (all on your own)
Don't let him make you believe, just another tragedy
Don't let him make you believe
