

Larry, Walk Alone

Well she says she needs
Just a little bit more And you know I want to give it but I'm not sure how You know I'm gonna miss her as she's walking out my door it's been a long, long time since I've been alone I'll remember the good times (sing it)
Sometimes you gotta walk alone
Sometimes you gotta go on singing your own song
Sometimes you gotta walk alone
And at the end of the night when your tired and your crying
Just come home
I was riding in the back of a beat up old chevy on my way to Amarillo six a.m. and the light grows I saw a sign on the side of the road
And it reminded me of you And all the things you used to do But oh baby the road is so long
Sometimes you gotta walk alone
Sometimes you gotta go on
singing your own song
Sometimes you gotta walk alone
And at the end of the night when your lost and lonely
Just come home
And I don't know where I'm not sure how But I'm gonna get back to her She taught me about love She taught me about life we stayed up late into the night and it felt right and it felt good You know the way it should
Sometimes you gotta walk alone
Sometimes you gotta go on singing your own song yeah
Sometimes you gotta walk alone
And at the end of the night when your lost, lonely, scared and crying
Just come home
