

LaShun Pace, This Place

Verse:

This place I'm in is a terrible place, I feel so alone.
It looks like there's no God anywhere or no one to turn to.
So I wonder what is the purpose of going on?
So I ask myself these questions many a times.

Chorus 1:

I'm in this world, but where is my hope for tomorrow?
I'm in this world, but where is my peace of mind?
I'm in this world, but where is joy unspeakable?
I'm in this world, but where is the love that conquers all,
oh love that conquers all?

Bridge:

But in the midst of all of my questions,
a voice from heaven I heard say...

Chorus 2:

You're in this world and I am your hope.
You're in this world and I am your peace of mind.
You're in this world and I am your joy unspeakable.
You're in this world and I am here to show You love.

Vamp:

Trust me in this place.
