Gotta to say hi
Burn the mask
Until you play the ...
And the world starts to break
Nothing keep secret
No one come to live

Day after day
Until there's nothing left
Enough
Enough of this
I got to get out
Until I suffocate myself

If I could
Remember why It means
To be me!
But it's can't
And it scare

Find the way to myself
And in my mind
It work

I'm wearing masks
I am different
Only my mirror knows me now
So tell me how you able to see
Who I really am?

Masquerade
