

Lauren Spencer-Smith, Sad Forever

I know the sun is out
I got a couple songs people like to talk about
And I should be happy
I know people say
It comes and goes
But if I'm feeling it every day
It's more than a bad week

Will I be sad forever
Will I be sad forever
If my hopes and dreams
All came together
Would I wake up one day feeling all better
Will I be sad
Will I be sad
Forever

I know that through the screen
You only see some of the surface shit I let you see
Truth is I'm breaking
I've tried everything
Still got empty hands
If you think I'm faking it
I'm sorry in advance
Even when I laugh, I cry
I know it's fucking dark but I wonder sometimes

Will I be sad forever
Will I be sad forever
If my hopes and dreams
All came together
Would I wake up one day feeling all better
Will I be sad
Will I be sad
Forever
And ever
And ever
And ever
And ever
And ever
And ever
And ever

Call it a phase
Call it whatever
I just wish someone would give me an answer
Will I be sad
Will I be sad
Forever
