

Leaf-Fat, Celebrate A Brand New Wave

Cradle of disgust, let us worship what is lust
Fetishists with another one
Let us celebrate a brand new wave

Let's-ce-le-brate-a-brand-new-wave!

Sinners with a trademark or consumers full of greed?
Both will soon pay off just to let'em breathe
You seem to enjoy it, living in the cage
Animals must be imprisoned, declared your god not mine

So darling let's pay the price
For a package engaged forever
Our salvation it's a celebration

Our ships are sinking under
At least we are together
Our salvation it's a celebration

Now we cling to everything.

Our ships are sinking under
We are much better down under
