

Leaf-Fat, Elegy

This creature is drowning in the lake of a thousand lives
The empire is burning down
Reflexion in our eyes resistance

Who needs bridges if the moving is restricted
Code on your forehead tells
All we've got is...
Code on your forehead tells
All we've got is...singing

So it's time for you and me to sing our elegy
Stand up show your pride
Cos all we've got is proud-being...
Proud-being...

It's time for you and me
To sing our elegy
It's time for us to see
What brings us hypocrisy...

Behind the picket fence
Mourning people and they dance
Slowly one into another
As the son's soul has disappeared

Slowly one into another
As your son disappeared...disappeared !
We are running away !!!

It's time for you and me
To sing our elegy
It's time for us to see
And no more vanity...
