

Leaf-Fat, X-P

Tonight the world was set on fire
No life on earth
No life on her my sweetest sin, the sweetest scene
Blood that melts the coward down,
Melts the gold from his crown

Human flesh burnt none of our concern
Human flesh burnt take another turn

The exaggeration of your howls
Made it sound so pure
The fascination of our worlds
Made it, found the cure

Last night the world was set on fire
No life on earth, the queen

Made it sound. it sounds
And blood that keeps the coward down
Retains his fear and he is drowned.
He was drowned

Human flesh burnt none of our concern
Human flesh burnt take another turn

Blood that melts the coward
Down melts the gold now he drowns
