

Leaves' Eyes, Misseri (Turn Green Meadows Into

(Misseri...)

Morning awakes,
Night is drifting away,
Winter's approaching,
Time to go or stay.
I see migrants travelling
To a far-away world,
Reflected in black waters and you...

Turn green meadows into grey.
Can you feel the winter waiting?
Ice-cold rivers turn to blue.
Can you see the jewel shining?

Fire burning in my eyes,
It warms my hands when I'm alone,
There's no one here to hold me tight.
Rain patters against my window,
Or is he knocking at the door?
Memories are growing stronger and you...

Turn green meadows into grey.
(Turn green meadows).
Can you feel the winter waiting?
Ice-cold rivers turn to blue
Can you see (can you see) the jewel shining?

Golden leaves under my shoes,
Gathering birds in the sky,
May I go with them?
Let me fly to you,
(Let me fly to you),
Let me fly to you,
And be safe.

Turn green meadows into grey.
Can you feel (can you feel) the winter waiting?
Ice-cold rivers turn to blue
Can you see (can you see) the jewel shining?

Turn green meadows into grey.
(Turn green meadows).
Can you feel the winter waiting?
Ice-cold rivers turn to blue
Can you see (can you see) the jewel shining?
