

Lee Carr, Breathe

Eh Eh Eh
Eh Eh Eh
U-Oh U-Oh U-Oh
U-Oh Oh Oh

if you ever been in love and you know just what i'm talking about expect when you really know you finally find the person u want and you wanna spend the rest of your life i thought i been there before but now that i'm sure, finally i find somebody who cares i giving my heart and my soul to her now just want the whole world to know you are the reason that i breathe i want you to know that if you wanna leave, then i couldn't go back my life will be incomplete without you here you're the reason that i breathe ladies if you got a man fellas if you got a girl why don't you tell em that they mean the whole world.. to you.. you you you eh eh eh eh eh tell em you the reason that i breathe the felling you get when you call n they don't answer n you feel like you're whole world is about to stop and you can't believe somehow, somebody makes you feel this way i'm talking about you can't eat

you can't sleep you can't think at all then like a apart missing in your life why don't you look em in they eyes and tell them that you are the reason that i breathe

why don't you tell em that they mean the whole world.. to you.. you you you tell em your the reason that i breathe i was broken before i meet you now i'm not stressing like i use to and i gotta say that you make my life much better

i can't barely breathe
when your not with me oh oh oh oh oh

you're the reason that i breathe

tell em ur the reson that i breathe if you got a man or if u got a girl why don't you tell that they mean the whole world to you... you you you if your somebody out there who feels like me put ur hands up and tell em ur the reason that i breathe
