

Lee Hyori, ?? ???

I don't know him anymore
if you only knew what I'm going through
I can't see him anymore can't you see
I cannot smile without you

I don't know him anymore
if you only knew what I'm going through
I can't see him anymore can't you see
I cannot smile without you

You remind of a someone that I once knew you wouldn't believe all da schmak that they put me through just a couple more shots of Jack n' I'm jacked and you're jacked my mind cause I can't make it home fine just another night sittin' here all alone wonderin' what's ever gonna happen to the seeds that I've sown cause it's freaky freaky breakin' it out in a club full of jazz yes the blues that's what I'm feelin' right now ya'll
