

Lee & Leblanc, Beautiful

<It's a beautiful day today
Woke up this morning with sunshine on my face
And since the storm clouds have lifted
I came drifting back to you
Oh yeah you

You alone have the power to redeem me
I was lost
And I'm still lost
But I can't deny the feeling

It'll be ok
My friend
My brother til the end
It'll be ok

It's a beautiful day today (ah ah)
You always say you shouldn't be here (ah ah)
Your brush with death was what you needed
And it left you looking pretty in an ugly sort of way

And all the kickaround
Never pinned it to the ground
You cheated death
Broke every bone
Now you're body's on the mend
And i can't wait to see you again

It's a beautiful day today (ah ah)
There's only two of us left standing (ah ah)
And when the hours turned and went away
Well i can count on you to stay

Cuz you and you alone
Have the power to redeem me
I was lost
And i'm still lost (I'm still lost!)
But i can't deny the feeling

It'll be ok
My friend
My lover til the end
It'll be ok
My friend
My lover til the end
It'll be ok
Hey.. friend.. lover til the end
Hey.. friend.. lover til the end
