

Lee Roy Parnell, If The House Is Rockin'

Hey hey hold it down hold it down
Hello baby I&#039;m glad you called

We got a party goin&#039; on and it&#039;s a free for all
I can&#039;t quite hear you the music&#039;s so loud
Just drive this way till you see the crowd
The cars will be parked all up in the yard
The doorbell&#039;s busted so knock real hard
No on second thought

If the house is rocking don&#039;t bother knocking
If the house is rocking don&#039;t bother knocking
Just step right in and let the fun begin

We got javalina sausage and crawfish stew
Tennessee whiskey and Texas barbecue
Pretty little girls that know how to dance
Doin&#039; the aligator in their leopard skin pants
Tell everyone we&#039;re gettin&#039; down tonight
And the only invitation is the party lights

If the house is rocking...

Yeah started out as Uncle Buddy&#039;s birthday bash
Then the Angels dropped by and decided to crash
They big but they&#039;re friendly havin&#039; a ball
Racin&#039; their Harley&#039;s up and down the hall
Teachin&#039; everyone the way to have fun
Singin&#039; born to be wild at the top of their lungs

If the house is rocking...

[ piano - guitar ]

Old man came down from across the street
Sayin&#039; ya&#039;ll gotta turn down we can&#039;t get no sleep
We found a big band record and we started to groove
Had a few drinks and he was in the mood
Wife came to the door poundin&#039; and yellin&#039;
Old man smiled he said shut up Helen
