

Lee Ryan, Light Of Your Soul

wooh
There's light of your soul

Can someone tell me how to play

...
I think I'm losing in this game
I've won before but I can't win again

So what becomes of those
Who hit by bottom low
But still refuse to give in

I saw them walking high
Someone even smiled
Because in their eyes it shows where they've been

wooh
There's light of your soul

Can someone tell me what's my name
They're calling me but I don't feel the same
I think I've been here once before
I lived a life ...

So what becomes of those
Who hit by bottom low
But still refuse to give in

I saw them walking high
Someone even smiled
Because in their eyes it shows where they've been

wooh
There's light of your soul
