Leela James, Didn't I

Give my best, give my all Forced me up against the wall Tired of tryin to make it right And I know it was wrong

All along I close my eyes Things I should known was high 'Stead I fell for your disguise And you saw my demise

(Chorus)

And I'm still standing here Through my pain I spread my tears And I still smile, cause it's alright You did me poor but I survived

(x2)

I give my best years to you Didn't I Give my best years to you Didn't I Give my best years to you Didn&:#039:t I. Didn&a

Didn't I, Didn't I, Didn't I, Didn't I, Didn't I

Didn't I trust you man Treat you like you were my king Tried to help but ??? but you was on the sly

But I'm still standing here Through my pain I spread my tears And I still smile, cause it's alright You did me poor but I survived

Using me, playing me, betraying me... No, no, no, no

(x2)

Didn't I Give my best years to you Didn't I Give my best years to you Didn't I Give my best years to you
