

Lefty, Miserable

So much for the ideas
Nothing ever takes you off my mind
Pictures put in cardboard boxes
Now it seems like you just stopped the time
Change the clock
To make it tick backwards
But the time is still
Slipping away

I'm smiling on the outside
On the outside
Lonely on the inside
You'll never know
How miserable I've been

Some days
I'll just stay in bed
Waiting for a dream
Where you arrive
Instead I wake up to another day
Empty outside memories
Things you'd say
Stuck inside
I wish I'd died

I'm smiling on the outside
On the outside
Lonely on the inside
You'll never know
How miserable I've been

I'm smiling on the outside
On the outside
Lonely on the inside
You'll never know
How miserable I've been

Change my number
Threw the sheets away
All my friends just say that
I'm a disgrace
And every day
I find something else
To miss about you
And I wonder if you feel the same

I'm smiling on the outside
On the outside
Lonely on the inside
You'll never know
How miserable I've been

I'm smiling on the outside
On the outside
Lonely on the inside
You'll never know
How miserable I've been

Miserable I've been
I've been
I've been Miserable
Miserable I've been
