

Lefty, Wounded

all along put the blame on you devil in the mirror don't know who i am hardened by time a little less than you detrimental fear you were once to me just the one now it's split in two tell me don't you feel it are you wounded too wonder are you wounded too thinking about all that was said i went mad and burned you out

and now i finally see it

tell me don't you see it and all along all i wanted was you
tell me don't you feel it was the one that i wanted in you
tell me don't you feel it all along all i wanted was you
