

Lefty, Wrap Myself

Ever since the first time
That I laid my eyes upon you
Yeah, there was something about it
(Something about it)
I knew I'd ever ever wanna find another
Yeah, there was something

That made me wanna
Wrap myself around you
Until it all connects
Wrap myself around you
Until it all falls into place

And ever since
The first time I laid my hands upon you
Yeah, there was something about it
(Something about it)
I knew I never ever wanted to touch another
Yeah, there was something about it
(Something about it)

And every time I get a little further out
Yeah, you bring me back
(Something about it)
It makes me never ever wanna run away
Yeah, there was something
That made me wanna wrap myself around you
Until it all connects
Wrap myself around you
Until it all falls into place

I never wanna find myself
Without you there
Cause I know there's nowhere else
And I know there's no one else
To wrap myself
To wrap myself

To wrap myself around you
Until it all connects
Wrap myself around you
Until it all falls in
Wrap myself around you
Wrap myself around you
Wrap myself around you
Until it all falls into place

I'll wrap myself around you
I'll wrap myself around you
I'll wrap myself around you
Into place
