

Legend Maker, Abandoned By Heaven

(Music and lyrics: Mauricio Ochoa)

(All vocal melodies and vocal arrangements: Diego Gomez)

Believe me when I say
That in this omniscient land
When the cosmos were cursed
I suffered in blackened twilight
I saw the lies of heaven burn
And the obscured creation of hell
Staring into oblivion
In a web where angels fell

Pre

Feel dawn become silent dusk

Wrath of emptiness

(Chorus)

As we lived in chaos our gates were denied

Banned in our faith on our one selfish God

In eternal flames, abandoned by heaven

We fell from our divine grace

Into a cosmic grave

As the bolts of punishment fell

Thy pain made darkness serenade

Once an angel of light

Now condemned to wake in dark

I greet the nocturnal sea

Our communion in perished agony

(Chorus)

(Solo: Both. Solo: Mauricio)

Farewell to paradise

Farewell to sanctity

I mark my pace with blood

I am forever free

As we lived in chaos our gates were denied

Banned in our faith on our one selfish God

In this world of madness, Salvation will die

I see no tomorrow, as we blacken the sky
