

Lemon Demon, Bill Watterson

Where'd you go
When you were done?
I'd like to know
What you've become.

Your biggest fan,
Awake at dawn,
I cry, I stand
On your front lawn.

It's plain to see
You're scared of me,
But that's not how it's supposed to be.

When you're the reason
I'm in town,
And every piece
Of mind you put down

Don't you know I think that you're the cat's meow?
Where's the tiger now? Where's the tiger now?

Bill Watterson, can't you hear me?
Bill Watterson, please don't fear me.
Don't treat me like I have rabies,
I only wanna have your babies.
