

Lene, Paper Bag

My boyfriend of two years and I
Broke up a month ago
It was me who called it off but now
I'm feeling all alone
I tried to get him back but he doesn't Pick up the damn phone
So I was wondering since you find Me hot, would you like to take me home
Take me home, take me home
So I could

Chorus: Put a paper bag over your head as we..
And imagine you're him
Put a paper bag over your head
As we
And imagine that I was with him

OK you probably think I'm crazy to Make such a request
But you're the only one in this place
Built kinda like my ex
But you're a guy I figured that you'd always be up for sex
you'd always be up for sex
And I promise there's no strings
Attached, I just want to get my kicks
So take me home, take me home
So I could

Repeat Chorus

My ex boyfriend was always Satisfied
I would rock his world most Every night x2

My boyfriend of two years and I
Broke up a month ago
It was me who called it off but now
I'm feeling all alone
So take me home
So I could

Repeat chorus
