Lenny Kravitz, Eleutheria

My life is perfect Because I accept it as it is The sunshine is shining Because it is what it is

What a beautiful feeling it's bringing All the birds in the sky are singing

Eleutheria the fire is burning Eleutheria the tables are turning

A new day is dawning Because it is time for a change With new consciousness forming There comes a new day

Oh we got to got to keep on trying When the children are cold and alone And are crying You got to understand

Eleutheria the bells are ringing Eleutheria the people are singing Eleutheria the people are yearning Eleutheria this world keeps on turning Turning

What a beutiful feeling It's bringing All the birds in the sky are singing You got to understand

Eleutheria the fire is burning
Eleutheria the tables are turning
Eleutheria the bells are ringing
The people keep singing
The fire is burning
The tables are turning
Got to keep on
Keep on keeping on
