

Lenny Kravitz, In My Life Today

When my memory starts to wander
I sit back and I ponder
How the whole world's gone asunder
I feel the rain and I hear the thunder

I was bare and I was lost
But you were there and now I'm born
You are the force and strength
In my life today

And oh how I thank you father
For giving us all over and under
You're a mystery, You're a wonder
I always knew since I was younger

I think about the way that you make it right
So full of love and sacrifice
I say yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

But you were right and I was wrong, yeah
'Cause I was weak but you were strong,
Ohoh hey hey yeah
You are the force and strength
In my life today

And now that the darkness has faded
I'm no longer blinded I can see, yeah
And I don't have to wait no longer
'Cause it's all about being free
Every day every way
I'm gonna get myself together
Every day any way, ohoh

You are the force and strength
In my life today, yeah
You are the force and strength
In my life today, yeah

You are the force, yeah
And you are the reign,
You are the force and strength
In my life today, yeah

You are the force and strength
In my life today

You are the force
And You are the reign
You make me try to do right
And throw away my evil ways
Yeah, yeah yeaaaah oh yeah,
Come on one more time,
Take me now, oh oh oh oh.
