

Leo Sayer, Another Time

Writers: leo sayer & david courtney

Another time, love
You know I can't quite recognise your face, love
Although I feel I know you from someplace, love
Another time, love -- but not now

Another face, love
I'm sure I know the voice, but not the face, love
I know you think I know you but then you're wrong, love
I don't know, love, who I am

Y'see I'm lost...
And I don't know who I am

Another town, love
Tomorrow night I play another town, love
The show keeps rolling on and so it goes, love
I don't know, love where I'm bound

I must be going now
I'm sorry I'm unsure
I must be going now
Maybe we'll meet again
Another time, love -- another town -- another place

Y'see I'm lost
And I don't know who I am
