

Leo Sayer, One Man Band

Writers: Leo Sayer & David Courtney well everybody knows down ladbrook grove you have to leap across the street you can lose your life under a taxi cab you gotta have eyes in your feet you find a nice soft corner and you sit right down take up your guitar and play but then the law man comes says move along so you move along all day well I'm a one man band nobody knows nor understands is there anybody out there wanna lend me a hand with my one man band for three days now I haven't eaten at all my my you must be getting so thin and soon my cap won't be large enough to drop a half a crown in so hey there mister don't you look so sad don't look so ill at ease well I can play you any song you like to cheer up that life you lead

and oh oh oh look at the rain falling oh oh oh look at it rain oh look at it rain well nobody sees the minstrel boy as he sings his tale of woe nobody sees him coming nobody see him go

well I can play you any song you like

with my one man band

oh I'm a one man band
just a one man band
oh I'm a one man band
