

Leona Naess, Anything

Where, Where are we
It got so misty I couldn't see
And as you lay your head
On this sunken bed
Do you regret me?

Chorus:
Does my way destroy you,
And if I knew,
Could I stop these Habits of mine
'Cuz When I
Open my eyes I'd give anything to see you
Do I drive you away with these pictures of blue?
When I open my eyes
I'd give anything to see you
To see you

Do the shadows
Brighten you when you sleep?
I feel alive
I'm no longer a storm
This heart is getting warm
Tell me
Do you regret me?

Chorus

~Solo~

I don't have cause to hate anymore
I'm not afraid to be alone
Well sometimes I catch myself laughing
And it's all because of you

When I
Open my eyes I'd give anything to see you
Do I drive you away with these pictures of blue?
When I open my eyes
I'd give anything to see you

When I
Open my eyes I'd give anything to see you
Do I drive you away with these pictures of blue?
When I open my eyes
I'd give anything to see you

When I
Open my eyes I'd give anything to see you

When I
Open my eyes I'd give anything to see you

When I
Open my eyes I'd give any any thing

When I
Open my eyes I'd give any any thing
