

Les Miserables, I Saw Him Once

Cosette

I saw him once

Then he was gone

We were like dreamers at night

Who meet as in a trace, then part again!

Two phantoms in the shadows of the moon

Can people really fall in love so soon?

He walked alone

He seemed alone like me

Could he have known

That moment was my destiny?

I had to run away,

And it was like a dream

I saw him once

The dream was true

I saw him once,

And once will do!
