

Less Than Jake, Nine-One-One To Anyone

so i will, i'll be the one who's coming clean with every single thing and all my thoughts in between i wonder if anyone is just like me a walking talking catastrophe another story of dependency
i never thought the face in the mirror would be me

hey 911 to everyone [x3]
i'm in a state of emergency like a shot, a shot without a chaser life's in a flash it moves way to fast the most bitter pill you've ever tasted

i wonder if anyone is just like me
a walking talking catastrophe

i'm afraid of growing up and growing old afriad of the past and present and what my future might hold

hey 911 to everyone [x3]

i'm in a state of emergency
