

Letter Kills, Brand New Man

Were taking off, so be aware.
Were watching out for them to clear.
And common sense is a comment that
Breaks the silence of defense.
So bear it now, It won't last long,
Just to save you from his charm.
I can't complain, I just walked away,
And took more steps towards being safe.
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a brand new man.
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a brand new man.
Its changing up, the clothes you wear,
And watching out for them to stare.
The common man, and his promise that
Breaks the silence of your plan.
Hes so caring now, but it wont last long.
Just to please you from the start.
I can't complain, I just walked away,
And took more steps towards being safe!
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a brand new man.
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a brand new man.
She was always standing there, she was always standing there,
She was always standing there. Ohhh.
She was always standing there, she was always standing there,
She was always standing there. Ohhh.
I can't believe this would happen to me
I never told you to settle for sex or
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a brand new man.
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a brand new man.
