Liberty X, Everything

Ahh
Everything about you
Ahh
Everything

All I want is everything, everything
All I want is you
All I want is everything, everything
All I want is you

I don't care about the car you're driving
I don't need the kind of gifts you're buying
I gotta feeling you ain't all about money
Anyway (Anything, anything)
I ain't looking for a cheap distraction
I ain't trynna grab a piece of the action
I wanna be with you every night and everyday (everyday)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)

Ahh
Oh
Everything, Everything
Every little thing about you
Ooh
Ahh
Everything
Everything, Everything
All I want is you

What have I gotta do to make it easy?
What can I say to make your heart believe me
I just wanna get to know you babe in every way
(Just wanna know you babe in every way)
The way you touch me is the way I like it
Nobody eved did the things that you did
There are no words to change my mind that you could say
(No words could change my mind that you could say)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby (Everything)
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)
(Everything, everything)

All I really want (All I really want) (Everything, everything)
Is every little thing about you baby
All I want (All I want) (Everything, everything)
Is everything (Everything)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby (Is everything)
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)
(Everything)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)

All I really want (All I really want)
Is every little thing about you baby
All I want (All I want)
Is everything (Everything)
