

Life Sex And Death, Big Black Bush

When you feel a certain violence from inside
Or when your nerve is shot and you ride the horse's hoof
When you're hungry and you're fighting to survive
You know what you want
Go, go, go, go
You know what you want to go and do
You know what you want to go and do
You know what to do
You know where to
You know what you want to push
Big black bush
Big black bush
Big big big big
Big black bush
Big big big big big big
Big
Walking naked to the corner store
There's a madman with a shotgun in his hand
Blows his guts out onto the ceramic floor
You know what he wanted
Go, go, go, go
He needed love
He needed tenderness
Without affection he felt so helpless
It's a sad affair in this atmosphere that all men have to push
And take a left at Albuquerque
He needed love
He needed tenderness
Without affection he felt so helpless
You know what to do
You know where to go
You know what you want to push
