

Life Sex And Death, Fuckin' Shit Ass

Some fkin' shit ass stole my money

Some fkin' shit ass

It ain't funny

Well they'll take your soul if you let them and they'll take your money too

Don't you go, don't you let 'em

Cause they'll split your pride in two

So help me

What will it take to feel love instead of hate/pain

What will it take to make peace the word for today

Some fkin' shit ass

Thinks he's godly

Some fkin' shit ass

Crashed my party

'Cause there are no morals or ethics and there's just no getting through

Don't engage in their methods

So help me.
