

Lifehouse, Runaways

We go sailing at midnight
Oceans far and away
No past or mixed emotions
Nothing to pull in our wake

We are beyond the stars
Up where the sky is ours,
We are crashing out of the cage,
As free as a couple of runaways
Surrender all we know
The future is ours untold, yeah
We are innocent and brave
As free as a couple of runaways

We speak in sign language
Unknown to sleepers and spies
With or without direction
I'll be here by your side

We are beyond the stars
Up where the sky is ours,
We are crashing out of the cage,
As free as a couple of runaways
Surrender all we know
The future is ours untold, yeah
We are innocent and brave
As free as a couple of runaways

Like a couple of runaways

We are beyond the stars
Up where the sky is ours,
We are crashing out of the cage,
As free as a couple of runaways
Surrender all we know
The future is ours untold, yeah
We are innocent and brave
As free as a couple of runaways
Yeah a couple of runaways
Yeah a couple of runaways
