

Lifer, New

take another hit and it makes me big again in, out, and around my head again here, and i'm never giving up because i don't wanna leave today my situation declines the tension rises above everything i see let it go
let it go
you can't have everything now one more hit to forget the path again now i'm on my back again down, and i'm never getting up because i don't wanna move today my motivation declines the temperature rises above everything i feel
let it go
let it go
you can't have everything now
let it go
let it go
you can't have everything now you've seen this happen before you know it's not a mistake if you've seen it before you'll see it again you fell asleep when i was awake you left me blind
left behind
when all i feel is hate all that i hate
all i've hated
let it go
let it go
you can't have everything now
let it go
let it go
