

Lifetime, Ostrichsized

Wouldn't you try to help me if you thought you could?
Can you see the sunset from the southside very good?
Yeah real good.
We are all alone tonight.
Nothing is easier.
We are alone, just by ourselves.
We are not normal.
And screwed up and mixed up.
All of us don't know where to begin doing for... doing for ourselves.
Can you see the sunset from the southside?
You can see it from the eastside too.
I still don't know a single purpose for the breath I draw.
Not alone... you're not alone, but with me you are.
All screwed up and mixed up.
All of us don't know where to begin doing for... doing for ourselves.
Can you see the sunset from the southside?
You can see it from the eastside too.
Can you see the sunset from the southside?
You can see it from the eastside too.
We are alone.
All of us don't know where to begin... We are alone.
All of us don't know where to begin... We are alone (alone).
All of us don't know (just don't know)
where to begin (begin) doing for ourselves.
We are alone (alone).
All of us don't know (just don't know)
where to begin (begin) doing for ourselves.
Doing for ourselves.
Doing for ourselves.
Doing for ourselves.
Doing for ourselves.
Doing for ourselves.
Doing for ourselves.
Doing for... doing for ourselves.
