

Lifetime, Up

i thought i'd roll off your back i thought you'd be tougher than that i've been acting really shitty you've been so stressed and sometimes your just a pest but counting your inadequacies seems a little silly pointless comes to mind i hope you don't mind all those i didn't call sometimes i don't care at all this is for you this is about you just get up you make me laugh and i can't count the times you've made me smile so get up you're beautiful but you're down
