

Lights Of Euphoria, A Moment Of Past

(So I could see you in heaven)

I hold your head in my arms
I close your eyes one last time

Now I wish I could kill myself
So I could meet you in Heaven

I saw her eyes
I saw her smile
I felt her heart
Embraced with love

A heart is broken and love is lost
There's nothing in this room for us
Feelings shared
The times we had
A place in history
A moment of past
