

Lights Of Euphoria, Lost And Found

If I knew how to play this game
In between pleasure and pain
If all the lies are the same
And all the wise are playing insane

If you knew how it made me feel
Everything was so easy with you
But that wasn't real
(Nothing is true)
No, that wasn't real
(Nothing is real)

I would surrender in silence
I would burn these shadows with my soul
I would surrender when time ends
I would take back what was inside me

Nothing is true
Nothing is real
I would surrender
I would burn these shadows with my soul

If you could see what was left in me
No passion
No comfort
No sympathy for you
Lost and found
Hope was the only thing to break the sound
