

Lights Of Euphoria, Mindtraveler

Let the morning rise
Now see the sun, it shines
No room for lies
No time to cross the lines

Over land
Over sea
Make a stand
I try to see

Take away the shame
Before it melts my soul
Take it away
Keep it for a brighter day

Picking up on every word I say
It used to make me forget
The shame inside
Some stories were told
History written to teach

Take away the shame
Before it melts my soul
Take it away
Keep it for a brighter day

[I made my voice heard all over the nation]
