

Lightyear, Tread Lightly, Speak Dearly

Tread lightly
Speak dearly
Enough of this
I'm a fucking passive counterfeit
Won't hide my
Hide my head in the rain
The weakness leaves me
Much stronger with every grain
Another reason
My prettiest
Just picture this

I'm fucked if I know
The whole procedure
I'm running and falling
I'm tearless, I need ya
Some indecision
This isn't working any more
Save us two some pain
A face to ignore

A self-expression
Conjures up your name
A concentration
Of times that we were the same
And my confidence has left me too

I'm fucked if I know
The whole procedure
I'm running and falling
I'm tearless, I need ya
Some indecision
This isn't working any more
Save us two some pain
A face to ignore

I'm fucked if I know
The whole procedure
I'm running and falling
I'm tearless, I need ya
Some indecision
This isn't working any more
Save us two some pain
