

Lil Flip, Sun Don't Shine

i thank god every day for paving the way cuz he made me who i am today a young, entropanure with amazning talent in order to be the best you must take the challange im trying to be number one cause number 2 dont matter people try to pull you down when you climb the ladder niggas hate to see you up but they love it when you down thats why im always quiet when i come around cuz talk is cheep thats why i rap im getting NBA money with no salary cap it feel good put money in your mail box thats for my niggas locked up in the cell blocks

(Chorus)

the sun dont shine thats why i spit these rhymes, to ease my mind (for real i gotta get away) the sun dont shine thats why i sipt these rhymes, to ease my mind (for real i gotta get away)

in life you go through joy and pain and when somebody close dies it gives you a migrane a whole lotta stress a whole lotta tears days turn into nights, nights turn into years im not happy here, i want another aptmosphere i gotta get away just to get my mind clear thats why i smoke so much it releaves my stress just imagine every day i gotta wear my vest i gotta watch my back, cause niggas pop the jet

Chorus

If i die today shit i live my life, if i could do it again, i'd do it twice no more movin (?)
or shootin dice, or creepin late night tryin to screw your wife cause im a changed man, with a heart of a lion even if i was a midget i'd fight a giant, i never give up, im from the home of the brave im still ballin like pac from the cradle to the grave
